by a small sampan, which is the method usually followed by the smugglers, federal authorities said. Smuggling has been reduced considerably, according to Harry Murray, collector of customs, who pointed to the fact that the "price of dreams" had risen considerably recently in the Chinese quarter here, indicating that the narcotic supply is scarce.

C. R. ANGEVINE, representative of the United States Rubber company, with headquarters at Reno, was an arrival this morning.

C. H. BOWEN, the genial representative of the Daphne, Carigan, Hayden Hardware company of San Francisco, is in Tonopah interviewing the trade.

IMEL Y. GILSON, a pioneer resident of Tonopah, representing the Bankers Life Insurance company, was an arrival this morning from his home in Reno.

H. R. COOKE, the eminent Tonopah and Reno attorney, arrived yesterday from the Riverside city to attend a directors' meeting of the First National bank.

WILLIAM WATTERS, superintendent of the Tonopah Divide Mining company, who spent the last three days at Virginia City on mining business, returned yesterday.

FRANK BELLA, director of the Nevada First National bank of Tonopah, was an arrival yesterday from Reese River to attend the directors' meeting which is now being held.

MISS CHARLOTTE HOBSON, chief stenographer of the Tonopah Divide Mining company, who has been visiting her mother in San Francisco for the past month, returned to her duties this morning.

CONTINUITY OF ORLEAN SHOOTS FULLY PROVEN

Reports from the Orlean mine, operated by the Orleans Hornsilver Mining company, are to the effect that the physical condition of that property has shown a wonderful improvement during the past few days. The southeast drift from the 700 level is now out a distance of 200 feet, with a continuous body of ore being exposed for a length of 150 feet that has a width of 6 feet, and worth on an average from $30 to $35 a ton.

During the past week the raises from the 700 to the 600 and the 600 to the 500 levels have holed through, which has not only resulted in a natural circulation of air being obtained, but has demonstrated the persistency of the ore shoots.

The northwest drift has been extended for 45 feet, and while the vein matter is somewhat broken up, it is anticipated that an orebody of importance is about to be developed on that side of the property. The ground being explored is a separate and distinct vein from that showing in the southeast drift, and as a result the management is watching developments with a great deal of interest.

The great results that have been forthcoming of late weeks in the development of the Orlean mine has created no little interest throughout southern Nevada, while mining men from many sections of the west have paid a visit to Hornsilver with a view to securing first-hand information. The result has been that the popularity of the district is rapidly expanding and it is now predicted that by early summer a real old-fashioned mining boom will be in evidence.

AMUSEMENTS

THE BUTLER TODAY

Florence Reed, Broadway's favorite actress, who is now at the zenith of her dramatic powers, plays four different characters in the quarter of a million dollar W. K. Ziegfeld photodrama, "The Black Panther's Cub." Based on Swinburn's immortal poem, "Faustina," the story of "The Black Panther's Cub" is woven about the underworld life of Paris, with occasional flashes of countryside life in England. It is a story of unusual proportions with a wealth of dramatic action, scores of colorful and varied scenes, a fast moving plot and a thread of romance that permeates in one of the strongest emotional scenes ever shown on the screen. Miss Reed is ideally suited to the role which she has been given in this production. During the course of the story she gives four separate characterizations, first as "Faustine," the keeper of a notorious gambling palace in Paris, second as Faustine's daughter who has been reared in refinement of a quiet English country estate, third as the pseudo Faustine who returns to Paris in the role her mother formerly held, and last as the bedraggled old hag, the original Faustine, who has sunk to the depths of the Parisian underworld mire. Also on today's bill, a two-reel comedy, "Ready to Serve."

The Investor
and the Income Tax

A 44-page book devoted exclusively to the income tax problems confronting the investor or trader in stocks and bonds.

This book is concise—written in simple, understandable language—contains sections of the Revenue Act of 1921—regulations and rulings of the Treasury Department—findings of the United States Supreme Court—carefully prepared by a firm of Certified Public Accountants (C. Y.) all dealing on stock and bond transactions. It is written in question and answer form, illustrated with many specific examples. It will be issued in a convenient pocket size and will also include several pieces of forms for listing your stock transactions. It is the book investors have wanted for years and we will be pleased to send investors or traders a copy without cost.

A COMMUNICATION

Regarding the article published in the Times of January 8 of a young lad, under age being fined for assaulting a certain person, I feel it my duty to bring a few facts to the attention of the citizens of Tonopah in order to enlighten them as to how the laws are being enforced.

Is it not the duty of the officers of this community to prohibit young boys under age from going to such places as are allowed to exist?

How much longer is Tonopah to be handled in the manner it now is? Young boys getting into such mix-ups as they often do are not altogether to blame simply because if the laws were enforced as they should be these things would not happen.

It is a disgrace to civilization to witness and hear some of the things that are carried on in the streets of Tonopah, and still there seems to be nothing done to prevent it.

CHESTER CLENDENING.

Dr. Cunningham has moved his office from the State Bank building to 128 Summit street, opposite the Catholic church.

TO HANDY WITH GUN

R. L. Jaymes, a Finn, was taken into custody early this morning by the local police after firing a pistol promiscuously in the Casino. The gun totter wandered in the entrance, fired four shots without any seeming provocation and not directed at anyone in particular, the bullets taking effect in the floor. He then started out and fired another shot in the street. James comes up for a hearing at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The Bonanza carries TWICE as much NEWS as any paper in this section. Comparison invited.

Announcement!

On January 1st we discontinued our Garage and Service Station to devote ourselves exclusively to FORD SALES and SERVICE. We have moved our stock of FORD parts and accessories to West Erie-Main street, opposite our old location, where we will be glad to meet our friends and patrons.

Mr. B. H. Ingalls has taken over our old stand and we bespeak for him the liberal patronage that has been extended to us in the past.
